Obituary

And I heard a voice from Heaven saying to me, write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.

The late Mr. Joe N. Barr was born August 28, 1946 in King Street, South Carolina and departed this world on June 11, 2022. He was the son of the late Clifford Barr and Sarah Belle Copper Barr.

During his early life, he resided on King Street, South Carolina and later moved to New York City. After arriving in New York sometime later on he met and married Dorothy Williams Barr and out of that union they had two children, Charles and Nicole. Joe also has an older son Gregory Green in South Carolina.

He worked at the Brooklyn Navy Yard where he helped build ships for eleven years. Then he worked Security at Wells Fargo where he was eventually promoted to Inspector. After working as Security, he went to work for New York City Transit working as an Iron Worker/Chauffeur for twenty-seven years.

Joe had several hobbies. He enjoyed fishing and he ran in several New York City Marathons, but his most favorite thing to do was tending to the family garden.

Joe is survived by his wife, Dorothy Barr; two sons, Gregory Green South Carolina; Charles Barr Jacksonville, Florida; one daughter, Nicole Barr Bronx New York; one granddaughter, Eboni Barr (Carrington) Smith Jacksonville, Florida; one great-granddaughter, Elloni Smith Jacksonville, Florida; one great-grandson, Carrington Smith Jr. Jacksonville, Florida; three sisters, Ethel (Thomas) McCrea Kingstree, South Carolina; Sarah Gaines Hollis, NY and Geneva (Bennie) Paulk Bronx, New York; along with a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

This Too Shall Pass

If I can endure for this minute
Whatever is happening to me,
No matter how heavy my heart is Or how dark the moment may be-
If I can remain calm and quiet
With all the world crashing about me,
Secure in the knowledge God loves me
When everyone else seems to doubt me-

If I can but keep on believing What I know in my heart to be true,
That darkness will fade with the morning
And that this will pass away, too-

Then nothing in life can defeat me
For as long as this knowledge remains
I can suffer whatever is happening
For I know God will break all of the chains

That are binding me tight in the darkness
And trying to fill me with fear-
For there is no night without dawning
And I know that my morning is near.

- Tribute To My Husband

More Of Thee, Less Of Me

Take me and break me and make me, dear God, just what you want me to be.
Give me the strength to accept what You send and the eyes with the vision to see All the small, arrogant ways that I have and the vain little things that I do.
Make me aware that I'm often concerned more with myself than with You.
Uncover before me my weakness and greed and help me to search deep inside So I may discover how easy it is to be selfishly lost in my pride.
And then in Thy goodness and mercy, look down on this weak, erring one And tell me that I am forgiven for all I've so willfully done, And teach me me to humbly start following the path that the dear Savior trod So I'll find at the end of life's journey a home in the city of God.
