Obituary

Fairy Lee (Sanders) McCray was born June 6, 1932, to Julian Sanders and Amanda (Pittman) Sanders in Randolph, Georgia.

She received her formal education in Georgia. She and her family relocated to New Jersey in 1950. Fairy did domestic work for many years, she met and married James (Jake) McCray. Their blissful union lasted 35 years until his death July 2001.

Fairy had nine siblings which all preceded her in death, five sisters: Marie Jones, Malissie Gibbs, Connie Sanders, Kerry Webb and Melonee Sanders. Four brothers: Albert Sanders Sr., Veron Sanders, Thomas Sanders and Julian (Frank) Sanders. She lived to mourn three sisters-in-law: Rebecca Sanders of Vauxhall, New Jersey, Gloria Sanders of Newark, New Jersey and Beatrice Sanders of North Carolina and a host a nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews and grand great nieces and nephews cousins, family and friends,

Fairy was a very family centered person and nothing gave her more pleasure then then her love for God, her love for her family and her love for her church which she spoke of each day right up to her passing.

Fairy was actively involved in, The Great Mount Mariah Church of Newark for over 40 years. Her faith in God saw her through a long illness to the surprise of all of the medical professional without the need of medicine or surgery and without pain.

We glorify her life and give praise to God for sending this devoted servant to touch so many lives. Now she rest with the heavenly host in Gods eternal care.

There are no tears in heaven
nor grief of any kind,
I leave this final teardrop to those I've left behind.
Though absent from the body,
I'm present with the Lord;
The joy of my salvation is now my full reward.
And just as God has promised,
He's wiped my tears away,
And nothing can compare to the wonder of that day.
So keep me in your memory and know that up above
There are no tears in Heaven,
instead there's only Love.
