Obituary

Belinda Robinson, the eldest of four children, was born to Keva Davis in Prince's Town Trinidad. As a young girl, Belinda attended Fifth Company Baptist School, after which, she helped with her grandmother's farm and parlor (bodega).

When the family moved to San Juan, Trinidad, Belinda took on the more significant role of raising her younger siblings while she was still a teenager. It was during her time, as a sales attendant in a fabric store, that she met the love of her life, Reginald Robinson. During their relationship, they had four wonderful children.

In 1978 opportunity arose in New York, and Belinda and family immigrated to Queens. Belinda attended school at nights to get her certification in Food Preparation and Management. She excelled in this area, working as a lead cook for well-respected financial companies in the Wall Street area until September 11, 2001.

During her retirement, she become more involved in church activities. Whenever, there was an opportunity for her to express her talents, she was called upon to do so and she shined.

During the last few years, Belinda's health deteriorated rapidly. That said, she was a fighter and continued to love hard on her family, friends, and church community until she was called home.

Belinda leaves fond memories with her husband, daughters, son-in-law, grandchildren, great grandson, siblings, uncle, aunt, nieces, nephews, cousins, devoted friends, and church family.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
