Obituary

Jamise Paris Smith was born on August 6, 1980 in the Bronx, New York.

Jamise Paris Smith graduated from Washington Irving High School with honors. She is the daughter of Jamie A. Smith and Constancee Watson Madlock.

After school, Jamise started working as a sales associate. Jamise worked her way up the ladder as a sales associate to earn a position at one of the most prominent stores in the industry. She became a retail sales manager for over 20 years. Being independent was something she learned at an early age.

Jamise leaves behind a 3 year old son, Milton Jamie Smith, who she referred to as “MJ”. She adored him greatly.

Jamise was full of life, smart and willing to help anyone in need. She would often volunteer to feed the homeless and she would volunteer to do other charitable duties as well.

Jamise was a Beloved Baptist, she enjoyed going to church with her mom at FCBC in Harlem, New York.

Jamise is survived by: her mother, Constancee Watson Madlock; her step-father, Emmett L. Madlock; her grandmother, Mary Smith Valarde; her aunts, Sandra Smith Hamburg, Michelle Smith, Tracey Knight, Jarenda Watson, Janene Watson, Alma Boyd, Mary Boyd, Jan, and Patty; her uncles, James Boyd, Jamez A. Watson, Johnnie, Tyrone, and Milton; along with a host of cousins.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
