Obituary

Dorothy “Dimple” Reeves was born on January 24, 1957, to the union of Bernard Grey and Mary Louise Reeves. Dorothy was one of twelve siblings who was reared in the Harlem section of New York City, located at 226 Madison Avenue, in Manhattan. She attended elementary school at P.S. 57, junior high school at P.S. 117, and high school at Julia Richmond.

Dorothy maintained several careers during her lifetime. She was an astute secretary for several years before pursuing a career in nursing. However, Dorothy’s biggest commitment was to her family.

On March 2, 1985, Dorothy gave birth to Frank Marvin Reeves, whose birth was a ray of sunshine, also to his grandmother, Mary Reeves, before the Lord called her to His Kingdom on September 21, 1985.

Dorothy was not only a mother to her biological son Frank, she also became a mother to the children of her sister, Delores Hughes, who passed away in 1982. Dorothy unselfishly and without hesitation, question, or asking for anything in return, while foregoing her career and desires, to care and raise her nephews, Steven Hughes, Ralph Hughes, Nathaniel Hughes, Alex Hughes, and her niece, Aliyasaabaatyumtaalibaat Hughes, as her children, along with Marvin.

As a woman of God, Dorothy enjoyed watching sermons on television, listening to gospel music, and ensuring all of her family members are covered in the Blood of Jesus.

Dorothy “Dimple” Reeves is survived by: her children, Frank, Steven, Ralph, Nathaniel, Alex, and Ali; grandchildren, Faith, Brook, Iman, Tatiyanna, Miracle, Trinity, Maurice, Nathaniel, Jr., Michallye, Lea, Tracey, Hanna, and Asher; great grandchildren, Jamani and Legend; siblings, Marie, Matthew and Arnold Reeves; sister in-law, Tereska; daughters-in-law, Barbie and Kellie; including nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and cousins.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
