OBITUARY

Ludlow Andre Dale was born on October 1st, 1980 to parents Sandra Dale and Ludlow Dale Sr. He departed this life on September 11, 2022, at Montefiore Hospital.

During his time here on earth, Andre attended P.S.78 Elementary School, M.S. 144, New York Military Academy, and Evander Childs High School. As a young man, he really enjoyed sports in his spare time. Andre loved playing baseball during his school years, and worked hard to earn his black belt in karate. He was also a die-hard Lakers fan. Andre went on to complete two years of study at Bronx Community College.

Ever the hard worker, Andre was employed by several nursing homes but was well known throughout the Bronx as a party promoter. Andre was a comical person who brought great energy to any room he stepped into. His ability to make a person laugh or put a smile on their face was uncanny. He enjoyed making jokes and was appreciated for it.

The person he made jokes with the most was his mother, Sandra. She was truly his best friend. They laughed together every day, through good times and bad. Andre and Sandra had a special bond that went beyond what words can explain. The support they gave each other was unyielding, up to Andre's last days. Sandra was there for him every step of the way.

Andre had a good heart, full of love for his friends and family. He looked out for those people in ways that only he could and oftentimes without them even realizing it. Including his parents Andre leaves behind, his wife Kerrian Dale; sons Jayden, Andre, and Jeavaughn Dale; brothers Omar, Christopher, and Darius Dale, and Brandon and Nicholas Bailey; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will all miss him immensely.

HOW GREAT THOU ART

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed;

Refrain.

Then sings my soul, my Savior-God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior-God, to thee.
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze; [Refrain]

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross my burden gladly bearing he bled and died to take away my sin; [Refrain]

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration and there proclaim: "My God, how great thou art!" [Refrain]

T'LL FLY AWAY

Some glad morning when this life is o'er,
I'll fly away;
To a home on God's celestial shore,
I'll fly away (I'll fly away).

Chorus

I'll fly away, Oh Glory
I'll fly away; (in the morning)
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by,
I'll fly away (I'll fly away).

When the shadows of this life have gone,
I'll fly away;
Like a bird from prison bars has flown,
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)
[Chorus]

Just a few more weary days and then,
I'll fly away;
To a land where joy shall never end,
I'll fly away (I'll fly away)
