Obituary

Vicki 'Utopia' Sweat-Watford was called to the Essence of her Almighty Allah on Thursday, September 8, 2022.

Vicki Diane Flood was born Saturday, December 22, 1945, at Harlem Hospital to Thelma Mack and Robert Flood. She was the youngest daughter of 6 children, Deloris, Robert Jr., Inez, Esther, and Michael Flood raised in Harlem, New York.

Vicki Diane Flood attended schools throughout New York State. She was enrolled at City College, where she would later graduate with an Associate Degree from Newburgh, New York. Vicki was employed with the Orange County WIC Program as a Case Manager for over 35 years, she retired in 2006.

Vicki was married to Daniel Sweat at the age of 17. They had 2 children together, son Kevin and daughter Tamika Sweat. She later in life met and married Bobbie Watford.

Vicki, known to most as 'Utopia', was a devoted Mother to her children and Queen to all of her Brothers and Sisters of The Nation. She was woman of Knowledge Itself. Her studies and teachings of lessons, from The Mathematics to 'Who Is the Original Man?', was where she would give the basics. Vicki had set her footprints in her early years as a Doula, assisting and directing women during childbirth. If you were ill, she would nurse you back to health with herbs such as goldenseal, pennyroyal and black cohosh. Along the way, unconsciously giving you lessons you will soon utilize throughout life. Vicki was the most beautiful, knowledgeable, understanding, caring, sensitive but strongest woman whom you may have ever encountered. She enjoyed free time at the casino and attending the 'Rally' throughout New York City, where at times, she was a guest speaker.

Vicki is preceded in death by parents, Thelma and Robert Flood; siblings, Deloris, Robert Jr., Inez, and Michael Flood; her children's father, Daniel Sweat; nieces, Melinda and Carolyn 'Nanny' Flood; nephew, Anthony Flood; and godsister, Christine Walker.
