

Message from Son

My Mother is a woman like no other. She gave me life, nurtured me, taught me, dressed me, fought for me, held me, shouted at me, kissed me, but most importantly she stood by my side right, wrong, or indifferent. I love you and will forever keep you close to my heart.

-Frankie Fisher

Poem from Grandson

I have always admired your strength,
You have undeniably kept our family protected,
Your trials and tribulations restored my faith,
And your perseverance was living proof,
The older I get the more I begin to understand,
That life always comes full circle,
For every Angel I gained above, God provided me with a beautiful daughter to match here on earth, I find comfort knowing you are responsible for those little smiles,
And one day they too will praise you for carrying our family this far

Love, Grandson

A Time for Everything

3 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: 2 a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot, 3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, 4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance, 5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, 6 a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, 7 a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, 8 a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.
9 What do workers gain from their toil? 10 I have seen the burden God has laid on the human race. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet[a] no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end. 12 I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live. 13 That each of them may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all their toil—this is the gift of God.
