Obituary

Sallie Bell Shiver Spigner, 88, of Hillside, NJ, was born on December 25, 1933, in Congaree, South Carolina to Eloise Shiver Green. She attended Waverly Elementary School and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1954, Columbia, SC. After high school she attended the Columbia School of Nursing. Her motto was “To Be Prepared at All Times.” After finishing nursing school, she started her career at the Columbia Hospital, Columbia, SC. as a Licensed Practical Nurse before relocating to Newark, NJ.

In New Jersey, Sallie met Charles Spigner and the two were married on January 14, 1962, in Newark, NJ. The union was blessed with three children, Faheem, Wanda, and Charlene. They lived in Newark, NJ before moving to Hillside, NJ in 1972. She was a long-time resident of Hillside for 50 years.

Sallie was employed by the City Hospital in Newark which was later renamed University of Medicine & Dentistry of New Jersey (UMDNJ). She was a dedicated nurse for 35 years and retired on August 31, 1991.

Sallie enjoyed attending church. She was a member of Little Friendship Baptist Church in Newark, NJ and later became a lifelong faithful member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in East Orange, NJ and served on the nurses’ guild and hospitality committee.

She enjoyed church functions, traveling back home to South Carolina, watching her favorite game shows

Wheel of Fortune & Jeopardy and spending time with her family, friends and especially with her granddaughters. She also loved to bake her sweet potato pies for the holidays. You could always catch Sallie reading the newspaper and watching eyewitness news on tv.

On October 16, 2022, Sallie gained her wings and transitioned from this life.

She was predeceased by her mother Eloise Shiver Green, stepfather Elijah Green, Sr., her husband Charles Spigner, her mother-in-law Georgianna Spigner Stokes, long-time companion Sam Roberts, her sister Ella Mae Williams, brothers Robert Shiver and Walter “Reginald” Green.

Sallie leaves to cherish her memory; a son, Faheem Bilal and two daughters, Wanda M. Spigner and Charlene D. (Nathaniel) Nicholson all of Hillside, NJ; three granddaughters, Amani Id-Deen Bilal, Jasmine Nicholson, and Jada Nicholson all of Hillside, NJ; her loving brothers and sisters, Betty Shiver, Elijah (Margaret) Green Jr., Patricia (Lawrence) Thompson, Joseph (Debra) Green, Ernest (Willadean) Green, Constance (Charles) Dingle, and Debra Walker all of Columbia, SC; her brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, William Stokes, Robert Stokes, Steven Stokes, Marvin Stokes, Marion Stokes, Henry F. Stokes, Jr., Barbara Hunt, Mary Simmons, Debra Stokes, and Gwendolyn Stokes all of Columbia, SC, Samuel Stokes, of California, and Blanche Spigner, of North Carolina; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
