Obituary

Jerome David Miller, Sr. fondly called “Romie Rome” was born August 1st 1956 to the late Arthur M. Miller, Sr. and the late Louella Miller at Orange Memorial Hospital in Orange, New Jersey. He departed this life on October 23rd, 2022 at Care One in Livingston, New Jersey.

Jerome worked in management positions as a freelancer at several different companies for more than 30 years.

Jerome graduated from Orange High School in 1974 where he would do and accomplish some crazy and amazing feats which will live in the back of his friends and family’s minds forever. He went on to obtain his certificate from the Technical Careers Center of the Essex County Vocational School in 2002 for AVC Refrigeration Basic Systems which led him to attain more skills and making him universal and unique.

Jerome was a honorable, proud, caring man who sometimes thought he could carry the world on his back. Against all odds Jerome would find some way to put up a rebel no matter what obstacle was in front of him. As he would always say, “No matter what you do in life, be the best at what you do.” He loved all his sisters and brothers, as well as his own children and taught them to honor the unbreakable and loving family code.

Jerome was preceded in death by his son, Jerome David Miller, Jr., his sister, Alexis Shipman and brother, Arthur Miller, Jr.

Jerome leaves behind his children: Zalene Miller, Malissa Miller, Justine Miller, Sarinnah Jones, Kiana Jones, Ebony Jones and Jerrell Miller. He is also survived by five sisters: Dorothy Riggans, Louretta Romane, Elizabeth Lee, Creola Green and Cynthia Miller; one brother, Joe Miller and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I Choose

To live by choice, not by chance
To be motivated, not manipulated
To be useful, not used
To make changes, not excuses
I choose self-esteem, not self-pity
I choose to listen to my inner voice
Not the random opinion of others
I choose to be me.
