Obituary

Anisa Tompkins was born October 16, 1990, in Manhattan, New York at Beth Israel Hospital to Mother Lucinda Tompkins.

Anisa was raised in East Harlem where she attended Elementary, Middle School, and High School. Anisa began working at Union Settlement at the age of 16 as a Summer Youth Employee. Anisa graduated from Park East High School in June 2012. Anisa continued to work at Union Settlement as a full-time employee who became a devoted and beloved after school teacher until her untimely death.

Anisa is survived by her Mother Lucinda Tompkins, her brothers Ali Tompkins, Asia Tompkins (Twin) and her younger sister Aaliyah Tompkins. Anisa leaves behind a host of Aunts, Uncles, and cousins, and her beloved friends who became her extended family.

Anisa's untimely passing has left her family and friends devastated and deeply bereaved. Anisa's loving heart, beautiful spirit and soul will be the fondest memories left behind for those who had the opportunity to be in her presence. Her spirit will live on forever as the presence of her memories will never be forgotten.

With love,
Tompkins Family

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,

Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,

And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do

Miss me-but let me go.
