Obituary

Louise E. Lee was born on January 6, 1942 to Addie and Lucille Clark in Charlotte County, Virginia.

She attended the public schools of Charlotte County and graduated in 1961. Seeking employment, Louise relocated to Newark, New Jersey in 1963.

In 1964, she was joined in holy matrimony to Willie F. Lee Jr. To their union was a homemaker. Then in 1976 she was employed by the Newark Board of Education, where she worked until her retirement in 2011.

In 1983, “Mae”, as she was affectionately known to family and friends, dedicated her life to Jehovah and was baptized. Upon her retirement from Newark Board of Ed., she served as a pioneer. The joy she received from witnessing the Word of Jehovah was illustrated in her daily activities.

Louise leaves to honor her memory: her son, Terrence Lee (Burlington, NJ); her daughter-in-law, Toni Lee (Burlington, NJ); grandchildren Justin Lee, Jordan Lee (Burlington, NJ); three sisters, Claudine Clark (East Orange, NJ), Pauline McGhee (East Orange, NJ) and Irene Salley (Chase City, VA). In addition, there are a host of other relatives and friends.

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God was going
To call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God call us one by one
The chain will link again
