Obituary

Pamela Susanne Fryer-Morris was born May 13, 1956, in New Brunswick, New Jersey to Rev. Lennie and Rosa Lee Fryer, both of whom preceded her in death. Pamela, affectionately known as “Pam” or “Pammie” to her family and friends was called home, to be with the Lord on October 22, 2022.

Pamela was educated in the Newark Public School system and graduated from Arts High School. In 2009, Pamela earned an Associate of Science in Business Administration from Essex County College, in New Jersey.

Pamela came to know the Lord as her personal savior at a young age. Her desire to learn the word of God was nurtured by her parents through their ministry within the Church of God in Christ. In 1982, Pamela became a member of the Calvary Gospel Church where she served faithfully for forty years. During this time, Pamela was also employed as the church secretary. In addition, she served as Sunday School Teacher and Children’s along with numerous other church ministries including the W.O.T.M., C.Y.P.D., and Women’s Bible Study. Additionally, Pamela was an active member of Calvary Bible Chapel - Women’s Ministry where she taught weekly and was a key presenter at their annual Women’s Retreat.

Pamela married William Morris on September 6, 1986. William preceded her in death in 1993. To cherish her memory Pamela leaves behind two beautiful daughters, Bernadette Fryer and Lilian Freeman (Alexander) both of Newark, New Jersey. Pamela’s four grandchildren— Jacqueline and Avery Church, Isabella and Alexander Freeman— were her pride and joy. Pamela was one of eleven children and is survived by seven loving siblings: Barbara Fryer and Zandra McMillion of Maplewood, New Jersey; James Earl (Cheryl) of Odenton, Maryland; Leonard Fryer of Charlotte, North Carolina; Ovetta Lewis of Irvington, New Jersey; Priscinda Franklin of Elizabeth, New Jersey; and Carolyn Fryer of Newark, New Jersey. She was preceded in death by three siblings: Salaranio Gibson, Monica Fryer-Greene, and Michelene Fryer. She also leaves behind eight nieces, four nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. Pamela will truly be missed by all.

He'll Understand and Say Well Done

By Lucie Eddie Campbell

*If when you give the best of your service,
Telling the world that the Savior is come;
Be not dismayed when men don't believe you;
He'll understand; and say, "Well done."*

*Oh, when I come to the end of my journey,
Weary of life and the battle is won;
Carrying the staff and the cross of redemption,
He'll understand and say, "Well done."*
