Obituary

Naomi Jefferson Person Jones was born October 3, 1935. She was born to James Elmus Person and Mary Ella Hicks Person in Vance County, North Carolina.

She was married to Walter Jones on November 14, 1964 until his death in 1995.

She was a devoted and humble member of Roger Williams Baptist Church until her health failed and she was unable to attend. She was also a dedicated member of the local Senior Citizen Center here in Passaic.

After working in the manufacturing industry at Revlon for many years, she studied Culinary Arts, one of her passions in life. She loved to cook as well as bake. She also had two other passions, scrabble and flowers. She could walk or drive by and name so many by looks. Her greatest joy was the casino. it gave her such a thrill. She said it was the sound that the handle made as you pulled it down. The sight of cherries made her day, she had won, no matter what the amount, She had Won.

She is preceded in death by five sisters; Lillie Person, Berlina Cannady, Ruth White, Marie Beverly, Christine Tharrington, one brother; James Robert Person.

She leaves to cherish precious memories two nieces whom she helped to raise as her own children; Ella D. Alston (Larry), and Justine E. Person who also preceded her in death; one goddaughter, Sandra Moss and a dear friend, Francine Hines. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews; great great and great-great-great as well.

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find I'm really still there
Inside your mind don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song there is no pain,
There is no fear so dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold for here I am,
No longer old I'm in that place
That's filled with love known to you all, as "up above".
