

A Son's Love

How can you mourn the amazing when your amazing is no more.

My amazing was my everything until God opened up his door.

You guided me with rules and structure that, at times, I did not understand.

The master plan you had for me molding me into a better man.

A mother's love is unwavering, and you made sure that was true.

Yes, we may have struggled at times, but it's always been me and you.

With your loving spirit, eagerness, and drive to help people, I've seen first hand.

These attributes I get from you even though stubbornness was not part of the plan.

Now I must let you go with no more pain and for that I am pleased.

Missing you would be an understatement, but my heart will be at ease.

You were a mother, an aunt, and a friend to most, but most of all, you were my queen.

To know you was to love you, and that's why my mother was so amazing.

Written by Darryl E. Salters

I'll Be Looking For You

Written and Composed by Rev. Dr. Milo S. Salters

There is a day that's coming, When the mist of the clouds shall rise, And the sun shall forbid to shine, And all material things die. On that day of triumph, The heavenly host shall appear, To separate the pure in heart, And ease them of their fear.

I am building my palace, For when he comes for me, I shall be ready with gladness, His precious face to see. When I've met the father, And have shook hands with the son, I'll kneel and thank them devotedly, For everything they've done.

I'll sit with them in glory, Besides Jordan's banks so fair, I'll listen to the angelic choir, As their songs shall fill the air. I, then, shall keep my promise, To my many buddies so true—When I told them, "We'll meet again For I'll search heaven for you." Oh, what a glorious meeting! Oh, what a time there'll be! When I get over in heaven, And their precious faces I'll see. So fear not, dear ones of my parting, To that land beyond blue, For I know we'll meet again, Because I'll search heaven for you.

Pall Bearers

*William Salters • Darryl E. Salters • Caleb W. Salters
Kenneth Riles • James Martin • Paul Webb*

Acknowledgement

We the family of Luevennia Edith Salters, would like to take this time to extend our sincere appreciation for all the acts of kindness rendered towards us during this time of bereavement.

Professional Services Provided By

COTTON FUNERAL SERVICE
130 Main Street
Orange, NJ
973-675-6400

1025 Bergen Street
Newark, NJ
973-926-6400

COTTON-PARKER FUNERAL HOME
37 Clinton Avenue
Jersey City, NJ
201-433-1000

www.honoryou.com

Celebration of Life for

Luevennia Edith Salters

January 18, 1951 - December 13, 2022

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 29, 2022
VIEWING 10AM • SERVICE 11AM
Cotton Funeral Service

1025 Bergen Street • Newark, New Jersey
Pastor Clinard Childress, Officiating

Her Story

Luevennia Edith Salters was born to the late William E. Salters and Gladys S. Riles on January 18, 1951, in Newark, NJ. Affectionately known as “Lou” by family and friends, she departed this life and went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, December 13, 2022.

Lou received her formal education through the Newark Public School System where she graduated from Barringer High School. She later continued to advance her education by attending Essex County College in Newark, New Jersey, in addition to her pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Arizona.

She was employed as a leader in the Data Entry Department at Dynatron Computer Company Inc. and Jerry Lakes Mailing Service, Inc. in Newark, New Jersey. From there, she broadened her occupation by working in various Accounts Payable positions. Her career expanded for a period of over thirty years, and her employment included working for Listner & Williamson Realty Associates and Winstar Communications, Inc. in Newark, New Jersey, Hobart West Solutions in Parsippany, New Jersey, and Medical Resources, Inc. in Bloomfield, New Jersey.

Lou was a Member of Trinity Chapter No. 14, Ozeil Grand Chapter, OES-PHA beginning 2010. She held the positions of Associate Conductress in the Chapter in 2013 and Conductress in 2015. She volunteered her time with joy and enthusiasm to the Hospitality, Ways and Means, Charity and Special Projects Committees, and she was instrumental in raising funds on behalf of Trinity Chapter No. 14 by participating in various activities and social events.

With a heart committed to God, Lou expressed her love by the presence of a giving and caring spirit. Her advocacy for Breast Cancer Awareness began with her affiliation with Trinity Chapter No. 14. Her extreme passion for helping people flourished in this capacity for over ten years. With the assistance of her team of dedicated ladies (the Salters Team), she organized a luncheon every year to raise funds to support the American Cancer Society. She was the driving force behind coordinating clothing drives for the homeless. Project Live was a recent recipient of her effort and desire to provide, hats, socks, scarves, and gloves to the homeless.

Lou will be remembered for her sense of humor and willingness to always lend a helping hand. She enjoyed playing competitive games of spades and bingo and took pleasure in games of chance and trips to casinos.

She was preceded in death by her parents, William E. Salters and Gladys S. Riles, sister, Constance A. Gaines, and brother, David R. Riles, Sr.

Lou leaves to cherish her memory: Her son Darryl E. Salters (wife, Jennifer); sister, Adrena R. Brooks; grandchildren, Darrian E. Salters and Caleb W. Salters; great-grandson, Josiah J. Salters; goddaughter, Zaquetta Genelien (husband, Michael); her two dearest friends, Carolyn Reed, and Ann Davis; nephews, nieces, and a host of other relatives and loving friends.

TO KNOW HER WAS TO LOVE HER.....

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

Order of Service

Musical Prelude

Processional.....Clergy And Family

Hymn.....“Blessed Assurance”

Scripture Reading

Old Testament (Ecclesiastes 3:1-4)..Pastor Tracy Scott-Marrero

New Testament (John 14:1-6)..... Deacon William Salters

Selection.....Vangela Crow

Words Of Comfort ..... Pastor Clinard Childress

A Son's Love ..... Written By Darryl E. Salters

Read By Kenneth Riles

Musical Selection..... Vincent Jeffries

Acknowledgement of Cards and Condolences ..... Ann Davis

Obituary ..... Celeste Daye

Reflections 2 Minutes

Eulogy..... Pastor Clinard Childress

Committal And Benediction

Recessional

Cremation
Evergreen Crematory
Hillside, New Jersey