Obituary

Leshayna Marie Singleton-McClennon was born on October 7, 1964 at Flower Fifth Avenue Hospital in Harlem, New York to Alonzo Singleton and the late Bishop Dorothy M. (Cotten) Singleton. She was the eldest of her four sisters. Shayna spent her early childhood in Harlem with her parents and sisters before moving to Jamaica, Queens in 1977.

She attended Presentation of Blessed Virgin Mary JHS and graduated from Hillcrest High School in 1982. She continued her education at Mercy College in Queens, NY. Shayna was a devoted Christian. She dedicated her life to Christ at an early age. Shayna was an Elder and ordained minister at the St. Mark Pentecostal Holiness Church. St. Mark was her church home where she grew up and learned about Christianity from her beloved grandparents, the late Bishop Mary E. Cotten and Overseer Wilson Cotten. Shayna loved music and was a self-taught organist. She was the choir and musical director of her church home for many years. She loved working in the church and cherished praising the Lord. Leading different ministries from music, praise dance, and women's outreach at local shelters, Jamaica's YMCA, and summer youth camp. She always enjoyed helping others, whether it be giving away toys and clothes at Christmas to kids in a shelter or feeding the homeless on Thanksgiving. She was always helping. Another passion of hers was singing with the Soul Searchers and Dunamis ministries choirs, where she met many of her closest and dearest friends. She enjoyed the choir sessions, recordings, and fellowship.

Elder Leshayna married Robert McClennon on December 17, 2005. They enjoyed traveling to many different countries, visiting family, and spending their time with each other. She worked as a home health aide for many years until her health prevented her services.

Leshayna loved to read her bible, praying for and with others, spending time with family, laughing and always wearing a smile on her face. She was a loving and caring person, devoted wife, and mother to children other than her own. Although she didn't have children of her own, she helped raise many.

"To know her was to love her." Shayna as we all called her leaves to cherish her loving memory her husband, Robert McClennon, father: Alonzo Singleton, sisters: Arlise Adams, Irene Singleton, Jamika Singleton-Garvin and Tamera Singleton, nieces: Jenia Adams, Taylor-Paige Garvin, Jessina Marie-Garvin, Nyla-Jules Garvin, AutumnRose Burke, nephews: John Adams, Jamaal Adams, Christopher-Jordan Singleton, Demir Locke, great nephews: Blake Adams, Antoine Adams, step-children: Ayanna Dominguez, Latoya and husband Elias Acosta, Robert McClennon III and 7 step-grandchildren; and a host of family and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
