Obituary

Quincy Mae Miller Cooper was born 1927 in Moultrie, Georgia. She was raised by parents Reatha Mae Anderson Miller and Quincy Miller (Father) deceased.

She attended Moultrie High School. In 1950 came to Newark, New Jersey. She became a member of Saint James A.M.E. Church.

She worked for the Veterans Hospital in Lyons, New Jersey where she helped wounded veterans. She then worked for the Board of Education in Newark driving the school bus, also North Jersey Community Center as a Nurses Aide. In 1977, she moved to San Diego, California where she was one of the first to work for Meals on Wheels at the Senior Citizen Center.

In 1981 she returned to Newark, New Jersey. She modeled for several senior citizen organizations and returned to driving buses for the Board of Education. In 1996 she moved to North Little Rock Arkansas. There, she worked in the cafeteria for the Board of Education. But her most and proud job was working for Clinton Library as a Tour Guide, where she met with President Clinton and Hillary Clinton for the opening of the Library. She worked with pride showing dignitaries, and people from different states in the library.

In 2014, Quincy returned to Hackensack, New Jersey where she resided with her daughter until she had to become a resident at Regent Care Nursing Home. She remained there until 2021. She was then taken to Berkeley, California to live the rest of her days with Bridgette Cooper (daughter).

She leaves behind her sister, Voncille Toure; six children, Joyce Chaney, Debra Neblett, Cynthia McMillion, Spring Hill, Bridgette Cooper and Todd Cooper; nephew, Brian Miller; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren, cousins, nieces, friends, and life long friends, Margaret McCoy, Ethel Sears and Odell Stevenson.

She is predeceased by four siblings Jamie Miller, Eddie Lewis Miller, Wilbur Miller and Larma Jean Whelchel, children Denise Hill, Eric Cooper, Annette Peoples, Gregory Cooper and Johnnie Patterson; grandchildren, Anthony Carr, Tom Patterson and Sharonda Patterson; and one nephew Gary Miller.

A Poem by Tanya Carr - Granddaughter

My Mah! Was a very Phenomenal Black Woman.

She is loved and admired by many!!

She deserves a standing ovation!!

For all the good sacrifices.

She did for her family, friends and people in general.

The memories of my grandmother is of many mixed emotions.

But God had the last say.

She earned her wings with a smile!

Eternity in Blissful Peace.

- Tanya Carr
