Obituary

Brother Duncan Eric Streeter (also known as “Toosie Boy” as his late grandmother Clifford Love-Thomas named him) was the son of the late Albert Streeter and Gertrude Thomas Streeter. He was born March 2, 1963, in Quitman, Clay County Georgia. He was the 11th child of 13 children.

He attended Camden Middle School and graduated from West Side High School in Newark, NJ. Duncan also went into the Peace Corps and the National Guard. He attended the New Creations Program and Holgate Church of Christ where he was certified as a public speaker in the Word of God in December of 2007.

Brother Duncan Eric Streeter was a free spirit, and some called him a Traveling Evangelist traveling from state to state spreading the Gospel of God. Whenever he visited his family in Newark, he would always visit Mothers Foundation Holiness Church and Bethel Church of Christ. He loved talking with Pastor Shirley Polite and others concerning the word of God. He would always say, “I am not perfect, but I stand strong in my faith and belief in God.”

Brother Duncan was preceded in death by eight siblings: Alberta Hicks, Bonnie R. Streeter, Albert L. Streeter, Jr., Willie J. Streeter, Jones M. Stevenson, Ben T. Streeter, and a set of twins whose names are unknown. He leaves behind 2 children Takai Carter and LaToya Streeter, six grandchildren Mariah Carter, Morgan Carter, Rayne Carter, Josiah Carter, Ziyunna Streeter and Zy’ Shawn Streeter; 7 siblings Willie Bell Spurlin, Rose Streeter, Ira J. Streeter, Charlie Belle Curry, Ivan J. Streeter, Randy E. Streeter and Martha Ann Streeter; 3 sisters-in-law Pastor Roslyn Streeter, Sheron Streeter and Marian Streeter and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. He also leaves his beautiful fiancée Sandra Adams of Lubbock Texas where he resided until his death January 3, 2023.

Recessional

Psalm 27

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.

Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

Acknowledgment

The family takes this means to express their sincere appreciation to Mother's Foundation Holiness Church, especially Pastor Shirley Polite, all pastors who have comforted us in this time of sorrow, and Churchman Funeral Home for services rendered.

Please speak with a member of the family following the services for the repast location details.
