Obituary

Anna Mae Moore was born on the magical day of March 17, 1931, the third of four children born to John and Anna Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Parker raised their children in a modest home in the Bronx, NY. They all completed high school.

Unable to attain higher education, the children maintained various employment positions. In 1955, Anna Mae decided to join the Women's Army Corp in Alabama. Her military specialty was telegraphic teletype operator and her permanent station was Ft. Ord, California.

Anna met and married her husband, Edward Moore in Ft. Ord, California. Sadly, upon his death, she returned to her parents in New York.

In 1978, Anna obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the City University of New York. Her military training assured her of employment at various times with the United Nations, Texaco Oil and finally retirement from Eastern Airlines.

Anna Mae has had a beautiful and happy life. She was a world traveler which led her to such places as Italy, France, England, Rome, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Morocco, Egypt, Hong Kong, China, Japan, Korea and Dubai.

Anna is survived by her sister-in-law Gladys Albert-Parker, one sister, Ernestine Smith and a host of nieces and nephews.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
