Obituary

Bobby Ray Griffith was born on October 9, 1960, in South Carolina to the late Sadie Mae Griffith and Robert Harrington and was the eldest of four children. The family migrated to New Jersey in the early 60's settling in Newark. Bobby attended Barringer High School where he specialized in woodshop class.

Bobby was a head butcher at Dell's Meat Market in East Orange for many years, he also had a love for cooking which allowed him to serve as a cook for basketball camps in both Pennsylvania and Phoenix. Bobby was a fun loving energetic person to be around, he had a passion for detailing cars and for sports. Bobby was extremely close to his sister Theresa; he was known for helping others and partaking in community service.

Bobby is survived by his two children Hanif K. Fladger and Tempest Bernard, his sisters Theresa Griffith, Tawana Griffith and Marion Griffith, his aunt Willa Mae Griffith, four grandchildren in Virginia, Hanif B. Fladger, Tyran M. Fladger, Amirah S. Fladger, Amina S. Fladger and two grandchildren in Raleigh, North Carolina, as well as two nephews and one niece, cousins, and friends.

Bobby was preceded by in death by his uncle who help raise him Ulysses "Nip" Griffith.

They Say There Is A Season

“They say there is a season.
They say that time will heal,
But neither time or reason
Will change the way we feel.
For no one knows the heartaches
That lies behind these smiles,
No one knows how many times
We have broken down and cried.
We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to do without.

There is no night without a dawning,
No Winter without a Spring,
and beyond death's dark horizon
Our hearts once more will sing.
For those who leave us for a while
Have only gone away,
Out of the restless careworn world
Into a brighter day.”
