Obituary

Beverly Huggins was born in Brooklyn, New York on January 16, 1979 to her parents, Wilbert Rodney and Ruby Lee Huggins.

She attended Martin Luther King High School. Upon graduation, Beverly worked for Duane Reade of New York.

Beverly was loved by many. She was lovingly referred to as “Bev” by her family and friends. Bev loved good food, people and to have a great time with family and friends.

She was predeceased by her mother, Ruby Lee Huggins, her father, Wilbert Rodney, her brother, Anthony O. Huggins (Tony) and her sister, Cynthia Y. Huggins (Vett).

Beverly is survived by her sister, Yolanda Huggins; boyfriend and love of her life, Capri Anderson; nieces and nephews, Dawnta Huggins, Joshua Huggins, and Anthony Huggins, Jr. and a host of other family members and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family

If There Were No Tomorrow

*If I knew it would be the last time
That I see you walk out the door
I would give you a hug and kiss
And call you back for one more.*

*If I knew it would be the last time
I'd hear the sound of your voice say, "Hey!"*

*I would tape each action and word
So I could play them back day after day.*

*If I knew it would be the last time
I could spare an extra minute or two*

To stop and say, "I Love you"

Instead of assuming you would know I do.

TOMORROW IS NOT PROMISED TO ANYONE, YOUNG OR OLD ALIKE
AND TODAY MAY BE THE LAST CHANCE YOU GET TO HOLD YOUR LOVED ONES TIGHT.

Acknowledgements

On behalf of the family of Beverly (Bev) LaToya Huggins, we sincerely thank you for all acts of kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless you and your family.
