Obituary

Charlie Mae was born in 1941 in Edison GA to her Father Charlie Henry Hall and Rosie Mae Lee- she Later Moved to NJ with her parents and her Brother Paul. Her sister Bertha Mae and Brother Odell were Born Shortly after.

Her Father affectionately called her “Tippy” because she was so quiet.

She was educated in the Newark public school system. She went to Cosmology school, attended Essex county college and even taught there as well. She loved learning and teaching and thrived in any field she perused.

Her hobbies included Traveling, fishing and sewing.

Charlie Mae went on to marry and have 4 Children, Rose, Sheila, Yusef and Laquanda.

She had 17 Grandchildren, 11 Great grandchildren, and 5 great great grandchildren.

The Last of her siblings to pass on, she leaves behind Her Children, grandchildren, Bonus Son Eddie Powell and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, Family and Friends.

She was a woman of integrity.

Discrete and liked her privacy.

She had the kind of wisdom you Seek.

Her Story was compelling because her perspective held value.

She was Quiet, but her presence was felt.

She Loved her family and thrived on creating memories with them and showing up for every occasion.

She Loved numbers, she studied them, knew what they meant, wrote them down, played them. Lol

She was independent, and moved to the beat of her own drum.

As a family our accomplishments were her own, and she was proud of our individual and collective achievements no matter how small.

She was a Vault, our history, our legacy, Our Loved One...And now Our Ancestor.

May she watch over all of us, and May we learn from her heart, and be kinder to each other. Cherish and create memories where and when we can.

Because as Grandma would say...We're all on the clock. And no one knows the time or the hour. She went the way she wanted to go. Like a light. May she continue to shine like one.

Amen.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
