Precious Memories

Im Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it up with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!

Obituary of Herman D. Fleming (Affectionately called Darward)

Herman D. Fleming was born on January 25, 1937 in Kingstree SC to Johnson and Ella Fleming. He was educated in the Kingstree public school system. After graduation Darward moved to New York with sister Tiny until 1961 when he married his high school, sweetheart, Rose Lee June. To this union two children were born Sylvia and Yvonne.

Herman moved to Passaic, New Jersey where he found work with US Ink. After over 25 years he retired not content with retirement. He went to work for Passaic County Community College.

Herman was a longtime member of the Mount Pilgrim Missionary B.C. where he was a member of the usher board, male chorus, and the mass choir.

In later years, Herman moved to Newark while in Newark he joined the Bethany, B.C. Sr. Center until his health was challenged.

Herman leaves to mourn his passing Rose Lee (eternal sweetheart) two children, Sylvia Fleming-Lemons, and Yvonne Fleming, both of New Jersey. two grand children, John Christopher and Mikayla Arleese of New Jersey. three brothers, Theodore (Rosa), Edward, and Lee (Elizabeth) Fleming all of Kingstree, South Carolina. Also a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Chank You Daddy 💘

Thank you for caring for me when I could care for myself. Thank you for the compassion when things did not go as we planned. Thank you mostly for your UNCONDITIONAL love and support.I will miss our walks, talks and celebrations here on earth, but rejoice in the memories and the assurance that you are resting in the Master arms. Lord knows, we love you but I am comforted knowing God Loves you best.

Sorrowfully Submitted, Your Daughters
