

OBITUARY

Trevor Lamont Williams was born on February 27, 1966, in Newark, New Jersey to Carolyn Miller.

Trevor Lamont Williams attended Bragraw Street School and Weequahic High School.

Trevor was an apprentice for several years with various contractors and learned how to do anything and everything regarding home repairs. Trevor worked for countless different contractors and families specializing in painting, mowing lawns and other household repairs.

Trevor was always a helpful and friendly individual who really loved to eat.

Trevor is preceded in death by his grandparents Daisy and Eric Williams.

Trevor leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother Carolyn Miller, a second mother and aunt Helen K. Baker, cousins Noreen Knight, Kim Baker, Sharonda James, and Belva Peterson. Two uncles, Hubert Williams and George Hubert Wilson and a host of relatives and friends who will dearly miss him.

A very special acknowledgement to Mary Ann, Manny and Pete Castro who were a second family to Trevor.

Trevor, go on and take your rest.

Lovingly Submitted, Carolyn Miller, Mom
