Celebration Of Life

Beatrice went home to be with our savior on October 10th 2023, at South Mountain Rehabilitation Center Vauxhall, New Jersey. She was born September 17th 1939 to the late Martha\ Anderson and Charlie Burk. She was the youngest of six siblings.

Beatrice attended school in Franklin County, North Carolina. She was a member of Mitchell Baptist Church. There she met the love of her life. Charlie Washington Hayes Jr. (deceased). They lived in Franklin County, North Carolina before moving to Brooklyn, New York. Finally settling in Irvington, New Jersey. Their union (3) children were born: Jesse L. Hayes (deceased) Barbara Hayes and Vincent E. Hayes.

Beatrice started her career with the White Castle system in the early 1970. Until health issues forced her into early retirement.

She than took up various hobbies: fishing, bowling, cooking, crossword puzzles. She was a wiz when it came to watching game shows. Most rewarding were her Friday and Sunday outings with her beloved son Vincent.

Beatrice attended Zion Hill Baptist Church, Newark, New Jersey. Were she was a deaconess alongside her spouse. The late Deacon Charlie Washington Hayes Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories (2) children: Barbara A. Hayes (Irvington, New Jersey), Vincent E. Hayes (Maplewood, New Jersey) and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

She will truly be missed by all.

I Am Learning How To Live

by Jamey Wysocki

I am learning how to live
In a new way
Since that day
You were taken away.

I am learning how to live
With the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them
With every tear that I shed.

I am learning how to live
By embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on
Through the memories that remain.

I am learning how to live
Knowing I will never again see your face
And I have peace knowing
You're in a better place.

I am learning how to live
Knowing you're in God's care
It gives me the strength to move on
And makes the pain much easier to bear.
