Obituary

Johnny Andino, aged 56, departed from this world on October 25th, 2023, leaving behind a profound void in the lives of all who were fortunate enough to have known and loved him. Johnny will forever be remembered for the cherished memories he shared with those closest to him. Born in the Bronx to Enrique Andino and Luisa Oyola, Johnny possessed a free-willed spirit that led him on countless adventures filled with spontaneity and daring. He embraced life with open arms, always encouraging others to do the same.

Throughout his time on Earth, Johnny devoted himself to the field of construction. His skillful hands could fix and build anything, leaving a lasting mark on the structures he helped bring to life. He took great pride in his work and was respected for his craftsmanship and attention to detail.

In 1988, Johnny's life took a beautiful turn when he met the love of his life. Their connection transcended the boundaries of a conventional relationship, evolving into a lifelong friendship that brought immeasurable joy and countless memories. Together, they carved a path filled with laughter, love, and shared experiences that will be treasured forever.

In 1993, Johnny's joy multiplied with the arrival of his beloved daughter. Their bond was unbreakable, and they created everlasting memories together. From frequent trips to the movie theater and amusement parks, to their shared passion for shopping, every moment spent together was cherished beyond measure. Their relationship exemplified the true meaning of love and friendship, even as life presented its inevitable challenges and changes.

As we mourn the loss of Johnny Andino, may we find solace in the legacy he has left behind. His free-spirited nature and zest for life will continue to inspire and remind us to embrace each moment with joy and spontaneity. His remarkable talent and craftsmanship will forever be admired. And the love and connection he shared with his loved ones will be a beacon of hope and strength during these difficult times.

Though we grieve the loss of Johnny's physical presence, we take comfort in knowing that his spirit lives on in the hearts of all who knew him. His memory will forever be etched in our minds, and his laughter will echo in our souls. Farewell, dear Johnny. Your presence in our lives was a gift, and your absence will be deeply felt. May you find eternal peace and happiness in the embrace of eternity.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me

I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!
