Obituary

Ronnie James Ingram was born January 17, 1957. He was born to his parents Minnie Walker and the late James Dillard Ingram in Paterson, New Jersey. He was educated at School Five and at JFK High School in Paterson, New Jersey.

For fifteen years he was employed at Fine Tex in Wayne, New Jersey as a machine operator. After his years as a machine operator, he developed his love of landscaping. He was often depended on for his landscaping. He also had a love for sports, with the Giants being his favorite team.

He loved his family and no matter how his day was, he would say he was alright.

He leaves to cherish his wonderful memories his wife; Patricia Ingram, sons; Rawshawn Goode, and Rasheem Ingram, daughters; Tauheedah Ingram, Talia A. Ingram, and Nailah Ingram, his mother; Minnie Walker, his brothers; Calvin (Sherry) Ingram and Bennard (Sharon) Ingram, his uncles; Mitchell Lingo of Detroit and Crawford Lingo of Atlanta; his aunts, Annie Copelin and Rosetta Hall of Detroit. Preceded in death by Elouse McCain, nephew; Shomari Ingram, grandchildren; Rawshawn Jr., A'sher, Dahmeir, Zaccheus, Kayzure, De'masjah, and Teion, great grandson; Justin Williams; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
