Obituary

"Don't remember me with sadness; Don't remember me with tears Remember me with laughter we've shared throughout the years. Now I am content that my life was worthwhile knowing when I passed along the way, I made someone smile."

The historic life of Robin Denise Davis-King began on Thursday, November 13, 1958. She was the second child born to John and Laylon Davis in Quitman, Georgia.

Robin's educational experience included attending Booker T. Washington Elementary School in Quitman, GA. She relocated to New York City with her family and continued attending school (PS 194, and IS 201). She graduated from Julia Richmond H.S. in New York City.

Robin was employed by the United States Postal Service, the New York City Department of Finance. Robin always had a desire to Work Hard and Strive for Excellent. This was shown while working for the New York City Department of Correctional, where she excelled and was promoted from a Correctional Officer to Captain in a very short time.

Robin was a passionate, meek and kind soul that showed love and compassion for family and others. At the age of 12, while sitting outside, she met the love of her life, James Michael King (who later became her husband). They added to this union one son Raheem. She was a devoted loving wife, mother/grandmother, sister, aunt, niece, cousin and friend. Always making her home a warm and inviting place. She not only helped family members, but anyone that crossed her path and was in need. Robin also enjoyed shopping, reading, taking care of her grandkids and making sure that the needs of her immediate family were met.

In celebration of Robin's remarkable life, she will be remembered for the indelible mark she left on our hearts. She leaves behind a legacy of love and respect.

Robin was preceded in death by her parents and grandparents.

She leaves to reminisce and cherish fond memories her husband, James Michael; son, Raheem; daughter-in-law, Janelle; three grandsons, Justus, Jaheem and Jaxson; two sisters, Lois Davis and Kim Gatling, one brother, Lige Davis; two sisters-in-law Catrina Davis and Deborah King, two brothers-in-law, Eugene Gatling and Steven King; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, loved ones and friend.

To My Mother

Thank you for always loving and guiding me. I can still feel your love guiding me. You will always be in my heart.

I love you and will miss you dearly.

Love your Son, Raheem

Our family circle has been broken, a link has gone from our chain Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be But there is a reason for it all, beyond our power to see.
