Obituary

Anne Akpezi Efeurhobo (Nee Ariawhorai) was known for her love for God and family. She was born on August 26, 1978 in Warri, Delta, Nigeria, to Sir and Lady S. O. Ariawhorai, KSG. She is the first child of the six children of this union and spent a greater part of her life in Lagos State, Nigeria. From her young age, she has shown a keen interest in charity and church matters.

Anne's life was marked with many experiences and events. She attended her pre-school at Stepping Stone Nursery School, Satellite Town, and her primary school at Nazareth School, Festac Town; all in Lagos State, Nigeria. Her Secondary School was at Federal Government Girls' College, Benin City, Edo State, Nigeria. She had her Tertiary Education at Federal Polytechnic, Bida in Niger State and Enugu State University, Enugu State; all in Nigeria. She had showed promise in activities like charity, teaching etc.

Anne's career began with Union Bank Plc and later moved to Heritage Bank Plc before she relocated to the USA, where she was able to embark on a new career journey in Education and children care: something she was passionate about. At the time of her death, she was working with Clinton Hill Childhood Center Inc. as an School Administrator.

From her young age, Anne Akpezi Efeurhobo was an active member of the Catholic Church, joining groups like Christian Youth Association, Saint Rita of Casia Society and St. Jude Thaddeus Society where she participated greatly. She continued her work for God with the Catholic Church when she was in the United States by actively donating money and supplies to different church groups back in Nigeria.

Anne Akpezi Efeurhobo (nee Ariawhorai) was married on August 20, 2011 to Mr. Serge Efeurhobo and the marriage is blessed with three children, two girls and a boy. Kevwe, Tejiri and Voke.

Anne Akpezi Efeurhobo has left an indelible mark in the world through her generosity, love for family and God, her passion for almsgiving. She will be remembered as a good Christian, loving wife and mother, benevolent daughter and sister and a dependable friend to all.

She is survived by her husband, children, parents, siblings, and several family members.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
