Obituary

Sarah Dell Hull was born on November 18, 1942 in Philomath, Georgia to the late Deacon Billy Hull, Sr. and Emily P. (Welborn) Hull. She was the youngest of ten children.

Sarah accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at the age of eight years old at the New Spring Hill Baptist Church and started singing in the church choir.

As she grew up, she attended many different churches and also sang in the church choirs. Over the years, she was responsible for organizing various church ministries and choirs as well. She also organized fashion shows and many musical programs highlighting the talents of the young people whom she mentored.

In 1961, she graduated from George Washington High School in New York City. Sarah's first job was working for a jewelry company. In 1968, she married Benjamin Gomes. From this union, two beautiful daughters were born: Beverly Gomes and Catherine Gomes-Alston.

She was also employed as a pre-school teacher and later graduated from Capri Institute of Cosmetology. Subsequently, she retired from Home Care Options as a home health care nurse. Some of her favorite hobbies were: sewing, quilt-making, crocheting, knitting, embroidering, upholstery, cooking, singing, playing the piano, guitar and banjo.

Sarah served as the Mother of Zion Gospel Tabernacle Fellowship Ministries Church. She also wrote many religious songs. One of Sarah's last missions for Jesus Christ was conducting church services at various nursing homes throughout New Jersey.

After a brief illness, Mother Hull entered eternal rest peacefully on Monday, January 15, 2024, at St. Joseph's University Hospital, Paterson, New Jersey. She was surrounded by her beloved family and friends, which would have pleased her immensely!

She leaves to cherish precious memories two daughters, Beverly Gomes of New Jersey, Catherine Gomes-Alston, also of New Jersey, son-in-law, Khalid Alston, grandson, Khalid Alston, one sister, Ruby Benson of Atlanta, Georgia, god-daughter, Michelle Mack, also of Atlanta, Georgia. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many, many friends.

Submitted in love,
Your Beloved Family

A POEM BY MOTHER SARAH HULL

I think that I shall never see a poem as lovely as a tree.
A tree that looks at God all day, and lifts her leafy arms to pray. A tree that may in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair. Poems are made by people like me, but only God can make a tree.

SARAH'S FINAL AND LAST PRAYER

Jesus, save all those who I come in touch with and give them everlasting life. Now at this my journey's end, I ask God to forgive me of all my sins, for I have not always done right. I'm asking Jesus to give me everlasting life too.

Thank you all, Mother Sarah Hull

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many comforting prayers, visits, telephone calls and other expressions of kindness and concern shown to us during this very difficult time.
May God continue to bless you!!
