Obituary

Gladys Jackson was born May 5, 1929 to the late Peter and Madia Denson Johnson in Madison, FL. She entered eternal life February 22, 2024 in Edison, NJ. Miss Gladys or Mrs. Johnson as she was affectionately called, was formerly employed with Art Colors Corp. in Dunellen, NJ for seven years and American Standard Company in Piscataway, NJ for several years before retiring. She was known for her famous collard greens and combread.

Gladys was a former member of New Light Baptist Church in Piscataway where she served as the mother of the church.

She is the last of 16 children. Along with her siblings, she is predeceased by her husband Rev. Amos Jackson, Sr.; two sons Jerome Jackson and James Johnson; two daughters Janet Bellamy and Sheila Snell.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter Betty Bellamy; two sons Amos Jackson, Jr. and David Bellamy. Also surviving are a host of grandchildren, great grand, great great great grandchildren; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

The Master Called I'm sorry I had to leave you.

My loved ones, oh so dear. But you see, the Master called me, His voice was very clear! I had made my reservation A heaven bound ticket for one, And I knew that He would call me When He felt my work was done. I know that your hearts are heavy Because I have gone away, But when the Master called me, I knew that I could not stay. Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you My loved ones, oh so dear, But, you see, the Master called me And, now I'm resting here. Yes, I've crossed on over to glory And to you all I say Just stay in the hands of Jesus And we'll meet again someday.
