Obituary

James Austin Williams III, born on November 11, 1945, in the Bronx, New York, to parents James A. Williams 2nd and Catherine Williams, who preceded him. He is survived by his siblings Estelle, Katherine, Frederick, and Kenny Williams.

Affectionately known as Jimmie, he is survived by his devoted wife, Celestine Williams, also known as Teena, his son James A. Williams IV, and three beloved grandchildren: Jaylan A. Williams, Justin A. Williams, and Jordan A. Williams. He is also remembered by his sisters Pat, Rose Marie, Irene, Loretta, TJ, his brother Revel, and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Jimmie and Teena shared an extraordinary 56-year marriage; they were inseparable, a true testament to their extraordinary bond.

Born and raised in the Bronx, James graduated from Monroe H.S. and served in the Air Force before attending Queens College. A dedicated supervisor throughout his career, he later served the public as a bus driver in Manhattan alongside his MABSTOA Transit brothers for 26 years.

Upon retiring, he enjoyed browsing. Jimmie indulged in his favorite pastimes, including watching TV, bowling (where he first met Teena 60 years ago), playing cards and dominoes, dancing, cruising, and passionately cheering for the KNICKS. He cherished time spent with his Transit TWU Brothers.

Jimmie was not only a loving grandfather but also a source of inspiration, always offering encouraging words. He held his grandsons dear, guiding them with responsibility. For those who truly knew James Austin Williams III, they had the privilege of knowing a genuinely kind soul. His memory will forever be cherished in our hearts.

Serenity Prayer

*God saw you were getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us. He only takes the best.*
