Obituary

Floyd Reynold Jennett, 86, transitioned peacefully on March 26, 2024, at his home, surrounded by his loved ones. He was born on May 25, 1937, in Belize City, Belize, to the late Aurther and Ruth Jennett. Floyd attended St. Michael's College, where he completed his high school education.

As a young man in Belize, Floyd embarked on various endeavors, including working for the British Council and serving alongside his father and brothers as a shipmate on boats. In 1965, Floyd migrated to the United States, where he pursued different job opportunities until he was called to serve with dedication at the NYC Transit. He spent over 20 years with NYC Transit and retired as a Dispatcher.

In 1968, Floyd married Jean Jennett, and from their union, they were blessed with one son, Brian Curtis Jennett, whom he cherished dearly. Floyd was known for his love of reading, and his passion for jazz music, which was reflected in his extensive record collection. He was also renowned for his remarkable knowledge of trivia, particularly evident in his avid viewership of Jeopardy.

In reflecting on Floyd's life, we are reminded of his unmistakable authenticity. There was no guessing with Floyd. If he liked you, you knew it, and if he didn't, you knew it too. This honesty was one of his many admirable traits, and it's something we hold dear as we cherish our memories of him.

Floyd leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. He is survived by his wife, Jean Jennett; his beloved son, Brian Curtis Jennett, and daughter-in-law, Tameka Jennett; grandchildren Brianna Ashley Jennett, Avery Curtis Jennett, Brandon Taylor Jennett, Tai Chandler, and Daria Chandler; great-grandchildren Brielle Marie Moore, Devin Gregory Moore, and Aryah Kinsley Moore; his confidante, Marie (Betty) Small; and siblings Andrew F. Jennett and Illona Shaw, along with their respective families, and a host of nieces and nephews.

Floyd is reunited in the afterlife with his late siblings, Arthur Jennett, Bonsal Loyd (Bunny) Jennett, Delverine Marigold (Lita) Jennett Garbutt, Ashton Jennett, Floyd Reynold Jennett will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
