I Just Had to Leave

I just had to leave,
Hoping that you would not grieve,
I was tired of suffering in pain,
Knowing when I left, Eternal life I'd gain.
It wasn't always easy for me,
I was the best I could ever be.
There were good days and bad
Somehow they all turned out to be glad
Even though you may shed tears
God will be there to calm your fears.
When God called me home
On that day
That's when I discovered
I just had to leave.
