Obituary

“My first sister, my superhero; strongest woman after mommy, the glue for the siblings, I love you forever” -Cassandra

Larrissia M. Chisom, better known to many of her friends and family as MaMa, was born May 3rd 1971 in Mary Immaculate hospital Queens Ny to her late parents Nathaniel & Angelena Chisom. Larrissia attended elementary school ps 118 and later in life she attended Susan B. Anthony JHS and finally Andrew Jackson high school.

Larrissia spent a great deal of her career working in the medical field and later transitioning into a inventory manager where she enjoyed getting to travel; she would then end her career with Mta Transit authority.

Larrissia spirit radiated pure joy, a whirlwind of love and laughter. She loved music, dancing, people, kool-aid, fried chicken, the color red, cooking, entertaining, and spending time with her family whom she loved more than anything in this world.

The kitchen was her home where she spent many days throwing down!!! In August of 2017 she met the love of her life Jesse at a night club they both frequented; they spent the last 17 years of her life together; with the intention to marry. A nurturer to her core, Larrissia's love knew no bounds. She was a people person and you couldn't help but to be drawn in by the person whom she was.

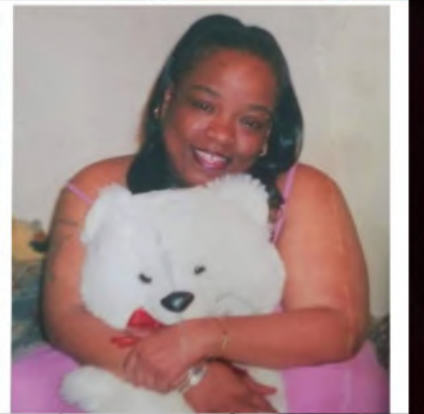

One of Larrissia greatest joys in life was becoming a mother to two sons who she showered with unconditional love.

A friend to all and a super-hero to many (a title that her sisters have her ). She had a heart that shined as bright as her smile. She showered all that she came into contact with -with love. With a no nonsense approach Larrissia listened, never judging, but would always guide with a gentle hand. Her advice was always what you needed to hear and not merely what you wanted to hear. Larrissia untimely passing on April 21, 2024 leaves a hole in not just the heart of her family but her friends as well

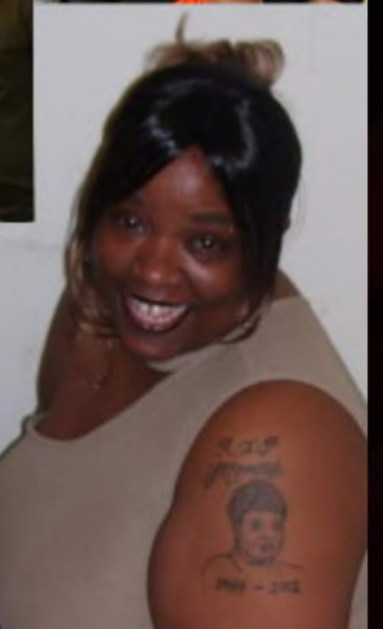

Larrissia, is preceded in death by her parents Angelena and Nathaniel as well as her four brothers Carlisle (Jake), Leroy, Bob and Darren.

Larissia leaves behind her two children Niaquan and Carlisle (Cookie), her Fiancé Jesse, and her 7 siblings Nathaniel (Fred), Cassandra, Shaquawana, Victor, Keith, Valerie, and Paris; One brother in Law Sean; three sister in laws April, Cherise, and Yolanda one aunt and one Uncle ruby and johnny and her three best friends Mary Jane, Quana, and Big D and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who all loved her very much.

To Those I Love & Those Who Love Me

*Now that I have moved on,
release me, let me go.*

*I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy we had so many years.*

*I gave you my love,
There is no measure to
how much you gave me in happiness.*

*I thank you for the love
you each have shown.*

But now it's time, I travel alone.

*Grieve a while for me,
if grieve you must
then let your grief be comforted by trust.*

*It's only for a while that we must part,
although you can't see or touch me.*

I'll remain in your hearts. You will hear all of my love around you soft and clear

And then when you must come this way alone

*I'll greet you with a smile and say
"Welcome Home"*

Acknowledgements

We the family of Larrissa M. Chisom, wish to acknowledge with grateful appreciation the many messages of condolences, floral tributes, kind deeds, food, and comforting expressions of sympathy from our many relatives and friends.
