Obituary

Lamont Smith was born on Wednesday, August 12, 1953 to Salma and Percy Smith at Harlem Hospital. Lamont was raised in Harlem, New York with siblings Evelyn (Ebby), Anita and his brother.

Lamont went to Benjamin Franklin High School in Manhattan. He started working at Bell Atlantic in 1978 as a telephone repair man. On the job is where he met the mother of his children Yvette. Together, they raised Lamont, Marissa, Tanya, Justin and Devere in Harlem, New York.

Lamont's love for karate and classic movies were only surpassed by his love for his family. He enjoyed watching his favorite martial artist Sonny Chiba in one of his favorite movies "The Street Fighter" with his sons. He found peace in laughing and joking with his daughters, while they set and listen to old school music and newer hits on the radio. Lamont had an infectious laugh and had a nickname for everyone that he loved.

Lamont is survived by: his children, Lamont, Justin, Devere, Marissa, and Tanya; his granddaughter, Kennedy; and daughter-in-law, Melanie. His presence and laughter will be missed by all who were blessed enough to meet him.
