Obituary

On a nice gentle cool breezy day Tyrone Hineef Parmley was born on January 24, 1983 at Beth Israel hospital to the parents of Valerie Parmley and Dion White. Tyrone was born the eldest with a little sister he loved unconditionally named Natasha Parmley.

Tyrone traveled his journey through life by the names of Tyrone Boobie, Boo Bear, and Tychie. His family gave him several nicknames since birth due to his growth and individual love of his relatives and peers.

Tyrone went through his childhood education within the Newark Public School system where he completed his high school career at Technology High School in 2001. Tyrone began his journey through the workforce working at just 12 years old as a cleaner for Seth Boyden housing authority. At several different McDonald branches Tyrone created a career of passion in the fast-food industry. For several years starting at just 16 years old Tyrone enjoyed getting up and going to work starting as a fry cook to moving through each department and over time became shift lead, supervisor, shift manager and finally serving as an Assistant General Manager. His entire work staff knew Tyrone as Mr. McDonalds and Boss Man. After 15+ years at McDonalds Tyrone continued his passion in food service working at Newark airport as well as Kean University. Tyrone's passion to provide quality customer service was installed into him and it also created a path to teach and educate his sister, his cousins and his employees to have the same passion of leadership, honor, respect, and passion for others throughout life whether on the job or in personal life.

Growing up Tyrone was an active member of Revival Temple Center of Deliverance where he attended Sunday school followed by morning worship under the guidance of the Late Bishop Jeff Banks followed by Bishop Gregory Allen Woods with his Nana and family.

Tyrone was so wise and full of love by his entire family and friends. His loving nature and first of all became the baby of all his aunts and uncles so he was considered everyone's first child. To his cousins he was their 1st cousin but always raised and led them through life as a big brother.

Tyrone leaves to cherish his memory: his Nana Francine; his mother, Valerie; his father Dion; his Godmother, Sharon; his sister Natasha; his Aunts, Elizabeth, Rose, Trina, Patricia; his uncle Anthony; his niece, Eva; his nephew, Tyaire, a host of cousins, friends, and family from North to South.

Tyrone was preceded in death by his great grandmother, The Great Evangelist Dorthy Edmonds; and his baby boy Tyair Barrett.

Celebrate My Life

Remember me with love and joy,
Let gratitude fill your heart.
Thankful for the time we had,
Gone... Yet not apart.
If we measured life in moments,
Not in months or years,
I lived a hundred lifetimes,
Loved by all who hold me dear.
I hope you'll find your smile.
And generously speak my name.
Share stories and my heart,
Your love for life unchanged.
Celebrate the life I lived,
I will be watching from above.
I am always with you,
Sending you my light and love.

Acknowledgement
