

In Loving Memory of

A portrait of Lynnnette Syfox-Azore, a woman with short, dark, curly hair, wearing glasses and a bright yellow and orange top. She is smiling warmly. The background is a soft-focus image of a large yellow rose.

Lynnnette
SYFOX-AZORE

OCTOBER 2, 1948 - NOVEMBER 14, 2024

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2024 - 11:30 AM

McCALL'S BRONXWOOD FUNERAL HOME
4035 Bronxwood Avenue • Bronx, New York 10466
Reverend Roslyn McKenzie Ochieng, Officiating
Minister Kevin Wade - Organist

Order of Service

Organ Prelude Minister Kevin Wade

Processional Minister & Family

Selection Minister Kevin Wade

Scripture Readings:

Old Testament (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8)..... Marcy Matthews

New Testament (Matthews 5:1-12)..... June Azore

Prayer of Comfort..... Troy Wilson

Selection Minister Kevin Wade

Tributes (2 minutes maximum)

Obituary & Acknowledgements..... Kiemel Bowen

Selection Somewhere Around God's Throne (Gillian Hope)
(The Grace Thrillers)

Eulogy Reverend Roslyn Mckenzie-Ochieng

Committal & Benediction..... Reverend Roslyn Mckenzie-Ochieng

Remarks & Final Viewing..... Funeral Director

Recessional

Pallbearers

- Shawndell Azore
- Andell Wilson
- Kioma Bowen
- Devin Graham
- Travis Azore
- Kimo Bowen

Obituary

Lynnette Syfox-Azore gained her wings on November 14, 2024. She was, and will forever remain, the matriarch of her family. Lynnette was a devoted mother, phenomenal grandmother, and a deeply loving wife. She led with love, compassion, immense strength, and patience. To know her was to know her pure heart, as she often sacrificed her last for those she cherished most. She was a friend to many and a highly respected pillar of her community. Those closest to her affectionately called her Lyn.

Born on October 2, 1948, to Egbert Syfox and Beryl Cummings in Georgetown, Guyana, Lynnette grew into a passionate lover of all things art. She adored singing and dancing to the timeless music of Gregory Isaacs and Beres Hammond and often filled her home with gospel songs. She cherished family time, nurturing her loved ones with her renowned home-cooked meals, endless funny stories, and her warm, hearty laugh—a laugh so infectious it brought joy to everyone around her.

Lynnette enjoyed hobbies such as knitting, cooking, solving crossword puzzles, and watching her favorite shows like The Young and the Restless, Walker, Texas Ranger, and Judge Judy. Before migrating to the United States, Lynnette worked as a housekeeper at the University of Guyana (UG) for several years. After settling in the U.S., she became a Certified Nursing Assistant at Regency Nursing Home, where she worked until her retirement. In her later years, she devoted herself to giving back and being a source of grace to her community in both the U.S. and Guyana. Her home was a sanctuary for many.

Lynnette is survived by her mother, Beryl; her husband, Irvyn; her sisters, Lorna and Pamela; her brothers, Charles, Paul, Laurie, Esmond, and Carlyle; and her children, Merwin, Rholinda, Shawndell, Royston, and Roslyn. She is also survived by her loving daughter-in-law, June, two sons-in-law, Mervin and Kelvin, and her twelve grandchildren: Keticia, Kioma, Kendace, Kinesha, Kimberliesa, Kimo, Kareem, Kiemel, Devin, Travis, Bryanna, and Tamira. Additionally, Lynnette leaves behind seven great-grandchildren: Kayla, Kordelia, Kailyn, Sariah, Kru, Kai, and the late Kailani. She was also cherished by numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom honored her deeply, and countless friends who treasured her as a reliable confidant.

Lynnette was preceded in death by her father, Egbert Syfox; her sister, Wellimena Wilson; and her son, Richard Graham. Although she is no longer physically present, Lynnette's legacy continues to thrive in the hearts of all who were fortunate to experience her gracious presence.

The Magic Of A Mother's Touch

*There's magic in mother's touch,
And sunshine in her smile
There's love in everything she does
To make our lives worthwhile
We can find both love and courage
Just by looking in her eyes
Her laughter is a source of joy,
Her words are warm and wise
There is a kindness and compassion
To be found in her embrace
And we see the light of Heaven
Shining from a mother's face.*

-Author unknown

Acknowledgments

The family extends their heartfelt gratitude for the comforting messages, calls, tributes, and other expressions of kindness during this time of mourning. May God bless you all.

Professional Service Entrusted To:

McCall's Bronxwood

Funeral Home, Inc.

4035 Bronxwood Avenue

Bronx, NY 10466

718-231-7647

Fax 718-231-7665

E-mail: Director@McCalls.net

Web: www.mccalls.net

 www.honoryou.com