Obituary

Miss Glenda Ann Brown lovingly known as "Aunt Glenda" was born on November 25, 1942 to the late Margaret Goode in McComerick County, South Carolina. She was raised by her dear cousins Mary and Presley Brown due to the untimely death of her beloved mother.

Glenda Ann was educated at Felton Elementary School in Troy, South Carolina. In 1954, she continued her education at the Promise Land School in Greenwood County and The Brewer High School. Glenda was raised in New China Baptist Church where she joyfully sang the "Good Old" gospel hymn "I Come To The Garden Alone".

In the late 1950's, Aunt Glenda relocated to New Jersey to live with her only sister, the late Mrs. Dorothy L. Walls. Passaic, New Jersey is where she decided to make her home and she eventually became a mother to her only son Keith Brown.

Unexpectedly, on Tuesday, December 31, 2024 New Years Eve, Aunt Glenda was called home to be with the Lord after dealing with a brief illness.

Aunt Glenda leaves to cherish her memory one son, Keith Brown; two nieces, Lajuana Walls Liking and Barbara Walls Woodbury; three nephews, Willie Walls, Barry Walls and Nathaniel Walls; one brother, Ralph Brown (Agnes); one cousin, Mornonor Evans and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
