OBITUARY

Victor “Vick” Manuel Ayala, Jr.

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Victor “Vick” Manuel Ayala, Jr. on February 5, 2025 at the age of 66. Vick had a larger than life personality and made friends wherever he went. His warmth and amazing smile lit up any room he entered. He was known for his bear hugs.

Vick was born on February 6, 1958 in New York City. He was raised in a large, boisterous Puerto Rican family where he developed a love for sports (baseball) and Old School Salsa.

He spent his formative years on 103rd Street in Manhattan Valley and attended Harlem Prep High School before continuing on to Wilberforce University, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Media Communications. After college, Vick went on to work for various media outlets: Inside Edition, King World Productions, WNET/Channel 13 and Fox News Corporation where he worked as a Video Archive Supervisor.

His early years were filled with the energy of city life, surrounded by family and friends who shaped him.

Vick was a foodie who enjoyed baking and managing the grill at backyard barbecues. He also loved traveling, the outdoors, bike riding, Super bowl parties, and the New York Yankees! But nothing filled him with joy and pride more than being a dad to his only child, Jorryn.

Vick is survived by his son Jorryn; his sisters Maria, Sandra, Sherley, Diana and a brother, Julio. He also leaves behind a cherished group of nieces and nephews: Jasmyne, Joshua, Justin, Jayla, Adam, Benaiah, Nathan, Alexandria, King, Anaya, Amaria, Mahleni, Angel, Gabrielle, Sahara, Aleeyah, Kamareon, Mame-Diara, Medina, Leonidas and Eddie his loyal childhood friend.

Although Vick is no longer with us, his legacy and compassion will live on. us media outlets: Inside Edition, King World Productions, WNET/Channel 13 and Fox News Corporation where he worked as a Video Archive Supervisor.
