Obituary

Daisy Dolores Wade, lovingly known as “Dolores,” was born on June 22, 1929, in Mobile, Alabama, to the late James and Theresa Sheffield Brooks. On February 28, 2025, she was called home to be with the Lord after a life well lived, filled with love, kindness, and devotion to family and friends.

Dolores was raised in Chicago, Illinois, where she attended school before moving to New York and graduating from Cathedral High School. She built a career in retail, working as a dedicated customer service representative at various department stores throughout the New York area. A woman with a keen eye for fashion and a love for sewing, Dolores always carried herself with grace and style.

A woman of unwavering faith, Dolores found joy in traveling abroad, visiting the casino, and watching figure skating. She was the heart of her family, always offering love, wisdom, and support.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Lemuel Paul Wade; her son, Randall Anthony Wade, Sr.; her granddaughter, Angela Monique Ware; her grandson, Randall Anthony Wade, Jr.; and her dear sisters, Gloria Crandle (“Snookie”), Teresa Clipper (“Dutchie”), and Alberta Toliver.

Dolores leaves behind cherished memories with her loving daughter, Cheryl Antoinette Ware; her devoted grandson, James Anthony Ware (Coco his wife); her granddaughters, Deidre Ware and Tunisia Serrate; seven great-grandchildren, Cheryla, Lavar, Essence, Deja, Milton, Dontay, and Harlom; and five great-great-grandchildren, Carter, Cameron, Riley, Talia Monique, and Emmy. She is also survived by her loving niece, Emildia Crandle-Williams; her nephews, Dennis Crandle and Tony Crandle; and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

Dolores will be deeply missed but forever remembered for her strength, kindness, impeccable style, and unwavering love for her family. Her legacy will continue to live on through those who were blessed to know and love her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
