Obituary

Ora Mae Isable was born January 1, 1938 to the late Lem and Willie B. Isable. Ora Isable spent her early childhood in Gary, Indiana but later moved to New York.

She went on to attend College and later became a clerk at Hartford insurance and retired for the Federal Reserve bank. Throughout her career, she was known for her hard work, dedication, and passion for helping others.

Ora was a devoted member to Canaan Baptist church where she sang on the choir, worked on the church credit union. She was also a member of the first lady's ministry. Ora loved to travel and went on several trips with Reverend Dr. Wyatt T. Walker -Civil Rights Activist to Spain, Mexico, Italy, Caribbean, and Israel.

In her free time, Ora enjoyed bowling and was a member of the Women's International bowling congress and was always eager to share knowledge and enthusiasm with others. She was an active member of her community, volunteering and donating to various causes and organizations.

She is survived by her brother William (and wife Bessie) Isable, Nephews and nieces: Donald (and wife Darrene) Hayes (Isable), Anthony (and wife Antoinette) Isable, William (and wife Sheilah) Isable, Tracey Matthews, Stephanie Todd, Gregory Isable Grand nephews and nieces: Asha Isable, Alisha Isable, De'Onna Hayes (Isable), Michelle (and husband Tarrel) Jones, Johnathan Isable, Natasha (and husband Ivan) Martinez, Nicholas Hayes (Isable), Anthony Isable Jr. Taliyah Holder, Kamron Todd, Jordyn Todd. Great-grand nephews and nieces: Amari Martinez, Avery Rippy, Miles Isable, Autumn Jones, Nasir Martinez, and Amari Jones. She also leaves very good friends Catherine DeWitt, Dorothy Malcolm and Linda Hailstock. As well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

She was a devoted daughter, beloved sister, aunt, and friend who will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

In Appreciation

*The family of Ora Mae Isable wishes to express sincere appreciation for many acts of love, concern, and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.
