Obituary

Jermaine Nibbs, born on March 5, 1980, in Bronx, New York, was the treasured son of Brenda Nibbs and Clifford Jones. Raised in the Mott Haven Projects, Jermaine's vibrant personality and natural curiosity left a lasting impression on those around him. At the Mott Haven Center, he discovered his love for swimming and proudly became a Boy Scout, engaging in adventures that nurtured his resilience and determination.

Jermaine pursued his education at P.S. 49 and Clark Junior High School before enrolling at Lehman High School. Demonstrating exceptional dedication, he later earned his GED—a testament to his commitment to growth and achievement. Skilled in plumbing and carpentry, Jermaine thrived in his career as a Maintenance Supervisor. Through his hard work and expertise, he transformed apartment homes into warm, inviting spaces, leaving behind a legacy of craftsmanship and care.

Jermaine is remembered for his strong values, tireless work ethic, his generosity and the love he shared with his family and friends. His legacy continues to shine in the lives he touched and the homes he helped build.

Jermaine leaves behind: his children, Takier, Kasi, Leila, and Kasir; grandchildren, Nevaeh, Payton, and Izalia; beloved fiancée, Sinnamon Flowers; stepfather, Raymond; siblings, Kendra, Tyrone, and Anthony; stepbrothers, Kenny and Keith; stepsister, Janiene; brother-in-law, Roy; sister-in-law, Charitin; cousins, Ronnie, Barry, Norman, Mecca, Nyree, and Saint; nieces and nephews, Tanique & Kaashif, Larnise, Janay, Tahj, Tenyjah, Cheyenne, Kameron, Chinae, Jordon, and Jaila; great-nieces and great-nephews, Tenise, Kaash, Niles, Mycah, Tamia, and Kyng.

Jermaine's memory will forever remain in the hearts of his family and friends, who cherish the love and light he brought into their lives.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
