Warren
Timothy Jordan

SUNRISE: JANUARY 31, 1972

SUNSET: APRIL 1, 2024

Obituary

A time to be born - On Monday, January 31, 1972, in the city of Oakland, California, Dorothy Odella Batson, gave birth to a bubbling eight (8)pounds, 4 (four) ounces, baby boy. This boy named Warren Timothy Jordan entered this world.

A time to learn: Warren's early childhood education years were in the Passaic City School District. He completed the 12th grade and graduated from Passaic High School, where he was a football player. Another accomplishment he achieved was that he started to drive in 2015.

A time to work: Upon graduating from high school, he entered the workforce beginning at Roy Rogers Restaurant. Soon thereafter, he joined the staff at United Parcel Service (UPS) in Secaucus, New Jersey, establishing a career of over 25 years of service with UPS.

A time to worship: In his late teens, Warren was impressed and became a learned student of the Nation of Islam. He attended the Mosque in Newark, NJ. He espoused the values and principles of Black solidarity and independence. His spiritual life was noble, sincere, and committed.

A time to travel: Warren Timothy Jordan loved to travel and went on several cruises, visiting Mexico, the Caribbean, Catalina Island, Alaska with his Coit family (cousins) and friends.

A time to play: Warren loved all sports, especially spectator, from curling to basketball, football, soccer, hockey anytime.

A time to eat: He was a connoisseur and gourmand. He enjoyed eating and often ate too much! He loved soul food, especially macaroni and cheese, collard greens, sweet potatoes, barbecue, and tofu.

A time to be health conscious: Despite his eating habits, Warren devoted time and energy to health and wellness. He liked gaming, loved to walk, taking long walks every day, and he worked out in the gym. He was always concerned about his weight. He enjoyed listening to music, particularly R & B, and found music to be therapeutic for his soul. Warren Timothy Jordan was known to his Godmother as a respectful, mild-mannered and a gentleman. He faced many challenges in life, but met each one with a warrior spirit of an over-comer and conqueror.

Preceding him in death are his father, Ronald Rodney Jones, maternal grandparents, Pastor Douglas Christian Batson Sr. and his wife, Barbara Odella (Johnson) Batson, his paternal grandmother, Gilla Richardson, his aunt, Barbara Ann Batson-Bracey, and uncle, Kenneth Jones.

A time to die: On Monday, April 1, 2024, 626 months later, or * days, Warren went to sleep from this earthly plain at his home in Passaic, New Jersey.

He leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Dorothy Odella Batson Jones (Glendale, AZ); his sister, Jasmine Leeshele Jones (Waldorf, MD); brother, Isaiah Jones (Columbus, OH); his uncles, Douglas Christian Batson Jr (Sharon) (Laurel, MD), David Arthur Batson (Atlanta, GA), Homer Jones (Akron, OH); nephew, Devonte Marquis Jones (Columbus, OH); dear friend and confidant, Melissa Grant. He is also survived by a host of cousins, especially Mark Dupree and Brian Wade, other relatives, friends, and a beloved Godmother, Dr. Alpha Omega Curry.

*You are near,
even if I don't see you.
You are with me,
even if you are far away.
You are in my heart,
in my thoughts,
in my life
always.*
