Obituary

Gwendolyn D. Johnson was born from the union of James W. Neal and Wilhelmina James on August 30, 1936 in Jacksonville, Florida.

Gwendolyn attended elementary school in Florida. She moved to New York in 1947 where she attended the High School of Commerce. After graduation she attended City College which is now Baruch College for 1 year and a half.

Gwendolyn met Gerald K. Johnson while she worked at New York City Housing Authority. They married on June 21, 1959. From this union a son Gerald Jr. was born and daughter Patricia was born.

Gwendolyn worked as a clerk in the NYC Criminal Court. She was promoted to Jury Clerk and worked in the Supreme Court in Manhattan which she enjoyed. She retired in 2004 to become a caregiver to her husband Gerald who passed away on May 28, 2025.

Gwendolyn enjoyed traveling all around the world as well as pulling down the one armed bandit in Atlantic City. She was a member of the Rain Boston East Senior Center where she made many friends. Gwendolyn was outgoing and always with a smile.

Gwendolyn leaves to mourn her son, Gerald Jr.; daughter, Patricia; her sister, Thelma N. Ford and family members, friends and neighbors who will remember the various loving ways she touched their lives. Ms. Gwen as she was affectionately called will be sincerely missed.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
