Obituary

Deborah Gloria Miller, lovingly known as “G” or “Auntie G,” was born on February 8, 1938, in Manchester, Jamaica. She was the daughter of Clarence Williams and Wilhelmina “Zada” Powell. She was the eleventh of twelve children.

Deborah was educated at Robins Hall Primary School in Manchester. In her early years, she moved to Kingston, where she lived first with her sister Evelyn, and later with Lucille. She worked for approximately 20 years as a presser at Jamaica Outerwear Manufacturing Company before migrating to the United States of America. During this time, she met her soulmate, Hubert Miller, whom she later married after relocating.

Upon her arrival in the U.S., Deborah worked as a Home Attendant, later joining the staff at Woodcrest Center as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) for two years. She eventually accepted a position at Preakness Health Care Center, where she remained until her retirement.

Deborah was a devoted and nurturing mother, stepmother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was also a beloved sister, aunt, and loyal friend to many. Her warmth, generosity, and unwavering love left a lasting impression on everyone who knew her.

She was preceded in death by six brothers, Ralph, Harry, Frank, Oscar, Hughriah, and Sterling and four sisters, Josephine, Evelyn, Adelsa, and Naomi.

She leaves to cherish wonderful memories her husband, Hubert Miller; her children, Diana Morris, Michael R. Coleman, Windsor K. Coleman Jr. and Paula Richie. She also leaves behind her stepchildren, Raymond Miller and Tameka Brown; her sister, Blanch Lucille. Deborah was a proud grandmother to eleven grandchildren: Jermaine Miller, the late Cushi Findlay, Latoya Findlay, Garth Morris, Jessica Richards, Jennifer Charles, Michael G. Coleman Jr., Windsor Coleman III, Brandon Coleman, Nicolas Furze, and David Damon. She was also blessed with fifteen great-grandchildren: Tristan Richards, Ava Richards, Gabrielle Richards, Aariah Charles, Justin Miller, Jahari Miller, Nae’qwon Morris, Isaac Morris, Zaniyah Furze, Zaiden Furze, Na-Zareah Gilliam, Madisen Damon, the late Mason Damon, Amir Damon, and Zarilyn Denise Wailing Lum Coleman. In addition, she is survived by five step-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews.

Deborah Gloria Miller’s life was one of kindness, love, resilience, and faith. Her legacy lives on through her family and the many lives she touched.

May her soul rest in eternal peace.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
