Obituary

Lillie Almeda Hall-Shepherd was born in Shorter, Alabama to George Hall Sr. and Annie Marcus-Hall on November 14, 1940.

Lillie, being the baby of four, was spoiled. She would play tricks on her family and pretend to faint to avoid working in the cotton fields. Great at fishing, she would often hide her rods near home to go fishing after school. Considered the "breadwinner" of this skill, she would often bring home dinner with the condition her siblings had to clean them. This memory brought Lillie laughter.

Lillie lost her elderly parents at a young age and soon thereafter, became a mother of four. She was brave enough to leave them while she looked for work up North. Once settled in the Bronx, they joined her and she extended her family to six.

Lillie was very sociable and enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

Playing video games and cards, listening to music and watching WWE were her favorites. Lillie was the best at pressing hair and amongst her family and friends, neighboring children would line up to get their dos done, especially before the start of school. Caring for others was natural to her. Lillie also loved to cook. Reflecting back she had to being a single mother of six. Using government cheese she made the most delicious mac and cheese and also fried chicken that would have given Colonel Sanders a run for his money.

Lillie was a gentle, loving and compassionate woman with the face of an Angel. You would rarely see her frown, as her cheekbones radiantly glowed with a beautiful and warm smile that will live on in our hearts forever.

On August 20, 2025, Lillie departed the physical world. We are broken hearted but with the hope of tomorrow, pieced together.

Lillie is predeceased by her parents; children, Randall, Wendell and Cynthia Shepherd; grandson, London Shepherd; brother, Benjamin Hall and sister, Thelma Williams.

Left to rejoice the memory of Lillie are her son, London Shepherd; daughters, Theresa Hall and Tangie Hall-Jeffrey (Colin); brother, George Hall (Corabell); grandchildren, Mashea Rodriguez-Demonde (Keith), Zeltanya Walton, Corinne Shepherd, Dalilah Shepherd, Darell Shepherd, Tangie Davis (Sherrell), Tanielle Franklin (Brandon) and Mercy Ramos; eleven great grands and three great-great grandchildren. She also leaves to rejoice in her memory a host of nieces, nephews, friends and loved ones.
