Obituary

Jaceil Kareem Blanks

Jaceil Kareem Blanks was born on August 21, 1993, in the Bronx, New York. He was the first born son of Robert Blanks and Rhonda Toler. Growing up, he was known for his infectious smile, a warmth that brightened every room that he entered. His kindness and humor touched countless lives and left a lasting impression on all that knew him.

Jaceil began his educational endeavor at The Immaculate Conception Grammar School, obtained his GED, and attended The College of New Rochelle. As an aspiring recording artist and entrepreneur, he recently began a new job, taking meaningful steps towards achieving his goals and building the future he envisioned.

Outside of work, Jaceil loved to dance and was the life of the party. Dubbed the "Neighborhood's Nephew", Jaceil built his name not with riches, but with respect loyalty and love. He walked the streets with pride, leaving his footprints on people's hearts.

Above all, Jaceil cherished family and friends even through indifferences. He is survived by His father Robert Blanks; Mother Rhonda Toler; Step-Mother Monique Blanks; Brothers Erick and Trevon; Sisters Tani, Teeona, Nalaysha, Jayda and Tazhane; Grandmother Stephanie Romero; Uncles Maurice, Byron, Farrah, Eugene, Fredrick, Ronnie and Derwin; Aunts Daarina Romero and Jada Williams, and Cousins Wynter, Derrick, Selena, Kevin and Jalia and as many extended family members and faithful friends Dushun, Kyle, Dave and Andre, who will forever hold Jaceil in their hearts.

Jaceil is preceded in death by his maternal great-grandparents Fred and Madelyn Cofield, grandfathers Eugene Romero, Ronald Toler and uncle Michael Romero.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free.
